

Clinical Applications for Group Drumming with Christine Stevens, MSW, MT-BC

“Christine Stevens can introduce you to the magic, fun, and healing power of drumming. I recommend it.”

~Dr. Andrew Weil, MD, author, Healthy Aging

“Christine is a master of building energy and unifying audiences through rhythm.”

~T. Harv Eker, Author of #1 NY Times Bestseller Secrets of the Millionaire Mind

Description: Drumming can be widely applied in clinical work across a number of client populations. Different drums, particular techniques, and specific drumming activities all cater to fit the diverse range of needs within various clinical settings. Filmed live at Resounding Joy in Sorrento Valley, California, this course gives a live learning experience showcasing examples of how drumming can be clinically applied to populations such as children, seniors, mental health, and recovery groups.

In this course, you will learn how to clinically apply drumming and drum circle tools. In 25 video segments addressing the essentials of clinical drumming, Christine Stevens takes ideas of clinical drumming application and turns them into successful formulas you can use to bring fun, engagement, and depth into your clinical work.

Board Certification Domains:

- II.D.8. Participant will identify 2 ways to create environment or space conducive to client engagement.
- III.A.5.v. Participant will list 4 drumming metaphors that would facilitate transfer of therapeutic progress into everyday life.
- III.A.1.d. Participant will name 2 ways he/she can provide ongoing acknowledgement and reflection within a clinical drumming setting.
